

EU Referendum and its bearing on climate change and future UK energy policy

Monday 23rd May 2016 10:00 – 10:45 – B7/3027
University of Southampton

Summary:

Lord Bourne, Minister for the Department of Energy and Climate Change, will be giving a talk on the upcoming EU Referendum and the tremendously important role it will play in the fight against climate change and the future of UK energy.

Attendees will have the opportunity to put questions to the Minister at the end of the session.

Programme:

10:00 – 10:05	Introduction Prof AbuBakr S Bahaj Head of Energy and Climate Change Division, FEE University of Southampton, UK
10:05 – 10:25	Lord Bourne Minister for the Department of Energy and Climate Change
10:25 – 10:45	Q & A

Venue:

University of Southampton
Highfield Campus, Building 7/3027 (L/R F1 - Lanchester – Engineering Building).

Friday 23rd May 2016 10:00 – 10:45.

Registration:

Please turn up to the event. You can also register for this event and future events. To register please e-mail
Mrs Sheila Stickland eccd@soton.ac.uk

Lord Bourne has been a member of the Lords since September 2013. He was appointed Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for the Department of Energy and Climate Change and the Wales Office in May 2015, and is also a Lord in Waiting. From 2014 to 2015 he was a Lords Whip (2014 to 2015) responsible for the Wales Office, the Department for International Development, the Department for Work and Pensions and the broadcasting elements of the Department for Culture, Media and Sport portfolio.

Lord Bourne was educated at King Edward VI Grammar School, Chelmsford; University College of Wales, Aberystwyth and at Trinity College, Cambridge, where he studied law.