

Calling high flyers!

Women in Aerospace and Aviation 2008

17 October 2008

No. 4 Hamilton Place, London W1J 7BQ

The next Royal Aeronautical Society event to inspire a new generation of women into aerospace will take place at No 4 Hamilton Place, London W1, celebrating a 100 years of British Aviation. Subjects will include aerospace engineering (design and maintenance), flying, airline/aerospace business and operations. The audience will include young women considering their first career moves and students currently on aerospace-related courses and training schemes, to young professionals and senior figures from across the aerospace community. The afternoon sessions will include break-out sessions.

Registration now open – men and women welcome! Attendance is free of charge and lunch is provided. To secure your place or find out more, please contact us with your details to: careers@aerosociety.com

The event is open to members and non-members of the Society of all ages and is free to attend with lunch included.

Co-sponsors:

